

Contents

Preface: The history of history and history education: A context for the book

Chapter 1

- 1.1 a, b, c, Lesson Plans Y5/6
- 1.2 Planning an enquiry Y5/6
- 1.3 One group's plans for their PowerPoint presentation
- 1.4 The Ghost at Brougham Castle – a story

Chapter 2

<http://centres.exeter.ac.uk/historyresource/>

Chapter 3

- 3.1 A department's approach to assessment
- 3.2 A pupils' introduction to the Law and Order unit
- 3.3 Overview of the Law and Order timetable
- 3.4 What was the cause of highway robbery?
- 3.5 What does the treatment of highway robbers reveal about attitudes to crime and punishment in the eighteenth century?
- 3.6a How and why have interpretations of highwaymen changed over time?
- 3.6bi and bii Pupils' Response
- 3.7 Account of attack by a highwayman 1730

Chapter 4

4.1 Exemplar student web materials

Please note: these websites have been adapted for use with Constructing History 11–19 and are not exact replications of the websites discussed in the book

- 4.2 Website template
- 4.3 Professor Barry Coward's assessment of the students' websites

Chapter 5

- 5.1 Supporting Sixth Formers in their historical learning
- 5.2 Case Study 5.1: Group draft and final answers: examples
- 5.3 Case Study 5.2: Student and academic formative feedback: examples
- 5.4 Case Study 5.3: Student commentaries: examples
- 5.5 Case Study 5.4: An example of a complete set of posts (Group 2)
- 5.6 Case Study 5.5: An example of a complete initial post (Truro 3)
- 5.7 Case Study 5.6: An example of a complete initial post with responses (Esher 6)